

CHTA EDUCATION FOUNDATION AND LES ROCHEs LAUNCH PROFESSIONAL DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM FOR CARIBBEAN NATIONALS.

CHTA Education Foundation (CHTAEF) has partnered with the prestigious Les Roches Global Hospitality Education to bring a new professional development program for Caribbean hospitality professionals.

The program is designed to propel hospitality supervisors and managers to hotel manager or general manager positions within 2-3 years. The online, interactive academic program is designed to be pursued alongside current job commitments, allowing them to accelerate their careers without interrupting them.

This executive postgraduate program has been tailored to support leadership and professional development for supervisors and managers in the Caribbean and is the first time it has been offered anywhere in the Americas. As a top world-ranked hospitality school, Les Roches continues to prepare the future leaders of the hospitality industry and this partnership will raise the standards of hotel excellence in destinations with the greatest potential.

There are five study units which cover nine key subjects, each study unit lasts approximately one month and requires a weekly commitment of 10-12 hours to complete.

Units will run Sep-Dec 2021 and Apr-Jun 2022 to accommodate region's high season in Winter 2022.

Scholarship covers for over 75% of program cost for accepted Caribbean nationals. Candidates or their supporting hotel must fund the remaining US$5,000 program cost.

Candidates must have a minimum of four years' hospitality experience, including one year in a supervisory position, have the endorsement of their hotel and be from a CHTA Member hotel.

The deadline for applications is August 15, 2021

The program will begin on September 19, 2021.

Interested candidates can get more information and apply here

